Wilkey Selected Treasurer of Healthy Visions Board of Directors

Contributed By Melinda Zemper | Oak Tree Communications, LLC

Healthy Visions, a Cincinnati nonprofit organization dedicated to building, mending and modeling relationships through healthy choices in sexuality, marriage and parenting, has selected new officers for its board of directors.

Justin Wilkey of Pleasant Ridge has been named treasurer of Healthy Visions. Wilkey received his undergraduate degree in engineering from Purdue University and his MBA from Xavier University.

Wilkey works for Procter & Gamble in new initiative delivery and lives in Pleasant Ridge with his wife.

Steve Feldmann, director of Legal & Government Affairs for Student Lending Works in West Chester, has been appointed president of the board of trustees for Healthy Visions. Feldmann, of West Chester, earned his law degree from the University of Kentucky, his MBA from the University of Cincinnati, and his undergraduate degree from Thomas More College. He also serves on the board of advisors for St. Joseph's Orphanage and on the Butler County Planning Commission. He lives in West Chester with his wife and two children, and is a member of St. Maximilian-Kolbe parish.

Kathryn Bernard, executive vice president and general counsel of CBS Personnel Holdings, Inc., has been named secretary to the board. Bernard earned her undergraduate bachelor's and law degree from the University of Cincinnati. She has served as a board member for the Ohio Association of Professional Employer Association and as past president, vice president and secretary of the Cincinnati Risk Insurance Management Board. Bernard has written numerous articles for specialty publications and is a national and regional speaker on various legal issues. She lives in Indian Hill with her husband and daughter.

Steve Feldmann, Kathryn Bernard, Justin Wilkey
